

History

Tuesday, 20 March 2007

Last Updated Tuesday, 08 May 2007

ManMa company was established in 2001 in a small office at Custom House Square. It is among pioneer Malay company established in Ireland. Initiated by Kamarulzaman Abdul Manan, proprietor of the company, the business has grown from importing small quantity of Malaysian food products to several containers annually. In April 2004, ManMa's operation expanded and has since relocated to its new office in Lucan, Co. Dublin.

The storage also move from U Store It to a more compatible storage in United Air Freight in Finglas Business Centre. Due to expansion, ManMa move to bigger storage to Barret Warehousing & Distribution Centre at Hibernian Industrial Estate, Greenhill Road. Tallght. D24.